NEGRO RAVISHERS LYNCHED.—A mob at Redan, Ga., yesterday lynched Reuben Johnson Hudson, colored. He had outraged the person of Mrs. James Bush, Tuesday. At 11 o'clock Mrs. Bush was entirely alone, her husband having gone to church and her little daughter was away from home. She was preparing for dinner when the negro suddenly sprang into the room, and, despite her screams and struggles, brutally outraged her. His great black hand was held over her mouth and she was alternately smothered and choked. In the meantime he threatened to kill her, and when Mrs. Bush, trying to frighten the brute, said that her husband would answer her screams, the negro said: "Your husband can't hear you, I saw him when he went up the railroad carrying an umbrella." This showed that he had watched his time. When Hudson was arrested the woman identified him, and he was immediately hanged to a convenient tree. He had been guilty of other depredations.

Ten days or two weeks ago a brutal assault was committed in Surry county, Va., by a negro named Reuben Cole upon Mrs.
Richard Savage. Cole was subsequently arrested and jailed. Excitement over the affair and indignation against the fiend have been at fever heat ever since, and lynching was freely talked of. Last Monday being county court day there was an unusual gathering of people, and lynching talk was so great that the sheriff had an extra guard placed around the jail. Tuesday night, however, a band of fifty men went to the jail, overpowered the guard and jailer, and took Cole out and hanged him to a tree, where they left the body and then quietly departed.

The cremation society at Zurich, Switzerland, one of the best organized associations in the world, has adopted the Bourry system, which is described as follows: "Like Siemens, Mr. Bourry allows only heated air to communicate with the body. In both systems the corpse burns directly; no flame is to be seen singeing the body, but it burns itself by the abundance of hot oxygen which surrounds it. Bourry uses carbonic acid gas, prepared in a coke regenerator, for heating the crematorium. During the process of cremation he uses mainly chimney gases for heating the air before it touches the corpse, which allows a more economical use of the heat. It is of great advantage that the chimney needs be thirty-five feet high from the base of the cellar, so that it is fully covered up by the building. The ashes fall, without being touched, by an almost automatically working apparatus into the urn. The dissolution of the body does not take place in the dark, unseen and uncontrolled, but the whole action is clear and open. Bourry and Venini place the crematorium, which has the shape of a sarcophagus, and which can be approached from all sides, in the midst of the hall in which the service is to take place. There is a little window on the back of the sarcophagus through which one can see the process of cremation, which is completed within one to one and a half hours, without smell or smoke. The process is solemn and beautiful, and avoids every unesthetic manipulation."—Sanitary News.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—An accident occurred yesterday to the Philadelphia and Chicago express on the Baltimore and Ohio railway at York, Ind., which resulted in the death of the engineer and fireman of the passenger train and the injury of the freight engineer. The train left Chicago at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, and at York, owing to a misplaced switch, ran into a siding and into a freight train which was standing there. Engineer C. Cramer and Fireman Edward Kooker, of the passenger train, were both killed, and W. K. Devine, the engineer of the freight, was badly injured, but will recover, it is thought. No one else was hurt. There is good reason for the suspicion that the accident was the result of a deliberate attempt to wreck the train. Thirty minutes before the passenger train passed York an excursion train passed safely over the switch, and after the accident it was found that the switch lock had been broken open with a heavy oaken club.

A construction train of the Chicago and Alton, on which were nearly one hundred laborers, was run into yesterday afternoon by freight train No. 74 of that road near Hopedale, Ill., and the result was a dreadful smash up with serious loss of life. Five persons were killed and a number wounded.

INSANE ON HER BRIDAL TRIP.—A happy marriage was brought to a sad ending in the death yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Annie G.
Waters, who was on Friday last brought to the State lunatic asylum at Harrisburg, Pa.
Two weeks ago Friday the deceased was married to A. Thomas Waters, of Reading, with whom she had been acquainted from childhood. Their marriage was one of the society events of the year. Two days after the wedding, while the couple were on their bridal tour, Mr. Waters noticed, for the first time, that the happy event seemed to have affected his mind, but remained silent until his return home, when the lady became worse, and was out of her mind nearly all the time.
The other day she wanted to set their handsome home on fire, and when her husband remonstrated she wanted to take his life. Last Friday, accompanied by her husband and the family physician, she was taken to the asylum.

dren teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a
